

I am strongly in support of greater use of Captel phones. My mother is a "beta" tester and it works great. She has been deaf for more than 50 years and this has been a tremendous help.